

Archway Shutters and Templates

Archway shutters/templates, both single and double curvature, can be supplied to tight tolerances on short lead times and at very economic rates.

This massive octagonal template was used to form a vaulted stonework arch.

Prefabrication

- Minimise on-site work
- Speeds construction
- Reduces the need for highly skilled site labour

‘Computerised cutting for dimensional accuracy.’

However complex the design, Cordek can provide the solution in high density Filcor expanded polystyrene.

◀ Finished arch cascade with the original template.
